FROM THE PASTOR

Laudetur Jesus Christus! Gelobt sei Jesus Christus! Sia lodato Gesù Cristo! Praised be Jesus Christ!

Today we celebrate the external Solemnity of Corpus Christi. There will be a Eucharistic Procession following the 11:00 a.m. Mass today. Everyone is welcome to join us. To help us meditate upon the mystery of the Holy Eucharist, the reason why this Church exists and the source and summit of the Christian life, please find this reflection from St. Thomas Aquinas below. The texts for the Mass of Corpus Christi were all mainly composed by St. Thomas Aquinas, shortly before his death. We often only associate St. Thomas with theology and intellectual pursuits, but in these texts for the Mass we find a saint steeped in spirituality and love for God. I hope you find these a good reflection for this week.

Lastly, please do not forget about the Feast of the Sacred Heart this coming Friday. There will be a special Solemn evening Mass at 7:00 p.m. (Traditional Latin with priest, deacon, and sub-deacon). A social will follow in the parish hall. See the next page of the bulletin for information on an opportunity for an indulgence on this day. I hope to see you there! Have a blessed week ahead.

Fr. Paul Beach

“The immeasurable benefits, which the goodness of God hath bestowed on Christian people, have conferred on them also a dignity beyond all price. "For what nation is there so great, who hath gods so nigh unto them, as the Lord, our God, is unto us?" The Only-begotten Son of God, being pleased to make us "partakers of the Divine nature," took our nature upon Him, being Himself made Man that He might make men gods. And all, as much of ours as He took, He applied to our salvation. On the Altar of the Cross He offered up His Body to God the Father as a sacrifice for our reconciliation He shed His Blood as the price whereby He redeemed us from wretchedness and bondage, and the washing whereby He cleansed us from all sin. And for a noble and abiding memorial of that so great work of His goodness, He hath left unto His faithful ones the Same His very Body for meat, and the Same His very Blood for Drink, to be fed upon under the appearance of bread and wine.

How precious a thing then, how marvelous, how health-giving, how furnished with all dainties, is the Supper [of the Lord!] Than His Supper can anything be more precious? Therein there is put before us for meat, not, as of old time, the flesh of bulls and of goats, but Christ Himself, our very God. Than this Sacrament can anything be more marvelous? Therein it cometh to pass that bread and wine are bread and wine no more, but in the stead thereof there is the Body and there is the Blood of Christ; that is to say, Christ Himself, Perfect God and Perfect Man, Christ Himself is there, under the appearance of a little bread and wine. His faithful ones eat Him, but He is not mangled; nay, when [the veil which shrouded Him in] this Sacrament is broken, in each broken piece thereof remained whole Christ Himself, Perfect God and Perfect Man. All that the senses can reach in this Sacrament, [look, taste, feel, smell, and the like, all these] abide of bread and wine, but the Thing is not bread and wine. And thus room is left for faith; Christ Who hath a Form That can be seen, is here taken and received not only unseen, but seeming to be bread and wine, and the senses, which judge by the wonted look, are warranted against error.” – St. Thomas Aquinas

PARISH NEWS

Corpus Christi will be celebrated at Sacred Heart today, June 18. There will be a Eucharistic Procession following the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Please join us!

The Feast of the Sacred Heart will be this Friday, June 23. This is the 'titular' feast of the parish, that is, the feast of the title. An important Feast for any parish. There will be a Solemn Traditional Mass at 7:00 p.m. A social will follow in the parish hall. We will also celebrate the Feast of the Sacred Heart on the following Sunday at all Masses.

Indulgence Opportunity this Friday! A plenary indulgence is granted to those who devoutly visit the parochial church on its titular feast. In visiting the church, it is required that one Our Father and the Creed be recited. One must also make Sacramental Confession within 21 days, receive Holy Communion, and pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Sick Visits If you or someone in your immediate family is planning to have a major surgery, or has to stay in the hospital for some reason, and would like a visit from a priest, please contact Bro. Brent at bstull@oldstmarys.org. He and Fr. Lawrence have begun visiting the sick of the Parish and would be happy to visit those temporarily in the hospital, as well. Please give some advance notice, if possible, for scheduling purposes.

Social after Sunday Mass Everyone is welcome to the parish hall for a social following the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. Please join us, even if just for a moment. Everyone is invited to bring a dish to share from time to time.

Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic? Or do you just want to learn more about the Faith? If you answered yes to any of these questions, contact Fr. Lawrence for information about upcoming classes!

Italy Oratorian Pilgrimage November 6-16, 2017 We are down to only eight spots left for the Oratory pilgrimage this coming November. If you are interested in going on the Pilgrimage to Italy in November, please get your reservations in! Contact the office with any questions.

Adult Catechism Classes are held each Wednesday after the daily Mass at Sacred Heart. Please join us to learn more about the Faith!

Fr. Mario Rauzi, c.s. has been moved to the nursing facility at Villa Scalabrini. It was suggested that his friends here at Sacred Heart Church may want to send him a greeting card but discouraged phone calls since it is difficult for him to reach the phone without a nurse in the room. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers.

Ravioli Dinner supplies available Boxes of frozen ravioli $9 per box of 50 and grated cheese $5 per pint. Call (513)541-4654 for pickup Mon-Thurs 11am-4pm.
